

Job Title: Electronics Repair Technician	Location: Hunmanby
Department: Quality	Contract: Permanent
Reports To: Quality Manager	Direct Reports:

1.0 Job Summary & Role

The Electronics Repair Technician works as part of the quality department and will provide production with support in -

- Repairing production units and customer repairs
- Developing and maintaining SOPs for repairs
- Supporting production with Root Cause Analysis on reworked parts
- Compiling reports and in-depth analysis linked to repairs.
- Assisting and carrying out product test procedures to support the Test Resources. Production and Development functions

2.0 Key Responsibilities & Main Duties

- Carry out fault finding tests in PCBs, finished goods and warranty repairs and complete the corrective actions.
- Provide production repairs analysis and reports.
- Carry out test procedures.
- Record and collate test data and fill in fault reports for customers.
- To work within production process when required
- Carry out EMC and new product basic function testing.
- Test hardware development build and maintenance.
- Support process improvements and developments
- Indicate in real time where the faults occur in production line.
- Machinery maintenance, calibration, and profiling
- Other duties as required to ensure the production area operates effectively and efficiently.

3.0 Internal & External Relationships

Working with Production Support, Maintenance, Quality, Production, Warranty

4.0 Key Performance Indicators

- Completion of all tasks and operation of all tools and machinery following DSE SOPs.
- Measure rework trends and indicate actions taken to reduce the cause of defects.
- Consistent achievement of the highest standard of production engineering quality.

5.0 Essential/Desirable Factors

Knowledge
Essential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Working knowledge of electronic equipment covering both digital and analogue circuitry. 	Desirable:
Skills & Attributes
Essential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attention to detail. • Well organised • Excellent communication skills 	Desirable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to operate under own initiative as well as possessing strong team working skills. • Demonstrate a positive and enthusiastic attitude.
Experience
Essential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Confident IT skills • Previous experience of fault finding on PCBs and electronic equipment would be an advantage. 	Desirable:
Qualifications
Essential: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Educated to HNC level in Electrical/Electronic Engineering or relevant industry experience. 	Desirable:

Created by	Dated Created
Natasha Graham	26/05/2023

